At our March 8 Council meeting we heard a representative from We Can, Caitlin Lietzau, tell us about their organization. We Can served 555 households in western Hennepin County for 2015, and also distributed over 45,000 pounds of food via their Mobile Market program. We Can is located in Mound next to the Dollar Store.

GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

WE NEED TO FILL Council officer positions that we have open, Deputy Grand Knight, Recording Secretary, and Advocate.

A BIG Thank You to the KC and family members who assisted with the Faith Formation Bunny Bingo on Sunday, March 13. There was a big turnout and over $1100 was earned for Faith Formation.

The March Pancake and Waffle breakfast earned our council and the CCW $239 with our portion being designated to the Pennies for Seminarians and the James Campbell /Religious Education Fund. Thanks to all KC members and family members who helped out.

The annual Church Cleaning will be on Saturday, March 19. Bring your family along to help out with this opportunity to spruce up our church for Easter. 900 a.m. start.

Father Joseph will be calling KC members to assist with Holy Week services. Please accept this invitation to assist and receive the graces from God for taking an active part in Holy Week.

KC Tootsie Roll Campaign is scheduled for April 22 – 24th. Please find a couple of hours to help with giving out Tootsie Rolls at Mackenthuns Meats and Klien Bank, and after masses that weekend. Proceeds will be going to Winsted West and the Vindland Center which work with individuals with disabilities.
